

BONALDO

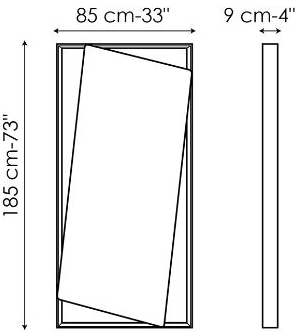

Hang up

A touch of movement, an unusual interplay highlighted by contrasting lines. Hang up stands out for the irregular position of the two elements of which it is made: the shape of the modern decorative wall mirror makes it seem like it has been released from the frame. The available finishings make it suitable for any stylistic context: the wooden frame is in fact available painted in two elegant colours. Positionable both vertically and horizontally, Hang up represents an ironic and unequivocally contemporary sign with great sculptural impact, the result of sophisticated aesthetic research. A true one-off that helps to furnish the environments in an original way and enlarge the spaces, thanks to its large reflective surface.
